The Danbury High School wrestling team competed in the prestigious Beast of the East tournament this past weekend in Delaware, where – as the name of the tournament would indicate – they faced many of the top wrestlers in the eastern part of the country. The Hatters scored 42 points and placed 41st out of 120 teams – better than any other team from Connecticut. Hatter sophomore Ryan Jack placed sixth at 120 pounds to lead the way, while Liam Kniht (106), Kyle Fields (126), A.J. Kovacs (145) and Gino Baratta (170) all scored points.
